KBR: Where time is treasured

KBR, the Royal Library of Belgium, is a place where knowledge and history come to life. The stately mid-20th-century building offers 13 meeting and reception rooms in different styles, tailored to your event.

The building of the national library is a complete concept: the interior was designed by the renowned design agency De Coene, a modern style with a practical angle.

In 2019, the building was redesigned taking inspiration from the original furnishings, in a style that brings out the best of its history while at the same time meeting the needs of today's users.

KBR is an inspiring place where the past and present meet. A place where time is treasured.

Your perfect meeting venue

You are choosing a location that exudes culture: the monumental building houses a museum and temporary exhibitions are organised here. This touch of culture will make your event extra special. Simply ask about our business packages for a private reception in the museum following your event.

Catering

The catering at KBR Events is exclusively provided by Witlof. Witlof works with small-scale, local producers around Brussels who, like us, opt for quality and sustainability.

Chef Filip Fransen can also be found behind the stove in restaurant a l b e r t, on the fifth floor of the building. The panoramic view of Brussels and the terrace overlooking the Mont des Arts make it the perfect setting for a business dinner in style.

Brussels: a vibrant events location

Brussels is the number one corporate event destination in Europe. When you choose Brussels, you choose a vibrant city with a long history. Gastronomy, historical heritage, and local culture make our charming capital the perfect location for your event. With over 100 museums, Brussels is also indisputably the country's ultimate cultural attraction.

The city is therefore very easy to reach, including from the airport. KBR is located near Brussels Central station.
